ABSTRACT OF THE SESSION: On 5th Aug 2022, Our college organized the annual day program “Aastra” which was held in the college auditorium. The chief guests were our honorable Principal “Dr. Deenanath Jhade” and our beloved teachers. The faculty team of our college along with volunteer students decorated the auditorium with flowers and lights.

The program started with Saraswati Vandana. Our principal and the teaching staff lit the lamp. First of all, the students presented a welcome dance welcoming the chief guests and their fellow mates. The entire program was hosted by our students. The students from different classes participated and performed various performances like dance, singing, acting, rap, etc. which was very pleasing to the audience.

Then began the most awaited moment, “Award distribution”. Our principal sir was invited to the stage to distribute the medals and the awards for the achievements of the students. The awards included the Sports Championship awards, the Academics Award, and the Appreciation Award for deserving students. A special award was arranged for the students who qualified for the GPAT and the NIPER exams. They were appreciated for their hard work and for motivating the other students for the same.

After that, our principal thanked everyone and ended the program by encouraging the students to work hard if they want to make a strong and good career in life. Refreshments were served to all present. All the people who attended that annual day enjoyed it the most. This was a memorable day.
